

HAITI

Consortium for the Reinforcement of Christian Education in Haiti (CRECH)

HAITI

Language: The language of instruction has traditionally been French, though most of the population speaks Haitian Creole. The number of schools teaching in Creole is on the rise.

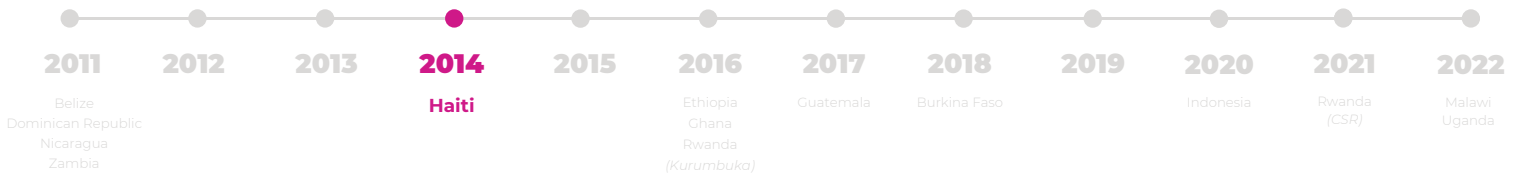

Population: 11.26 million

Schools: The Haitian school system has 15 levels – one of CRECH's goals is developing distinctly Christian curriculum manuals for each level

- Investments from the government represent 20% of the public education sector's income
- The private education sector does not receive funding from the state, though some
- Catholic schools receive some subsidies.
